Letter dated 8 March 2001 from the Secretary-General addressed to the President of the Security Council

I have the honour to refer to resolution 1333 (2000), adopted by the Security Council on 19 December 2000, concerning Afghanistan. Paragraph 15 (a) of that resolution requested that, in consultation with the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1267 (1999), I establish a committee of experts for a period of 60 days from its effective entry into operation, regarding how the arms embargo and the closure of terrorist training camps demanded in paragraphs 3 and 5 of resolution 1333 (2000) can be monitored, including the use of information obtained by Member States through their national means and provided by them to the Secretary-General.

Accordingly, following consultations with the Committee, I wish to inform you that I have appointed the following experts:

1. Mr. Haile Menkerios (Eritrea)
2. Mr. Reynaldo Arcilla (Philippines)
3. Mr. Michael Chandler (United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland)
4. Mr. Mahmoud Kassem (Egypt)
5. Mr. Atilio Norberto Molteni (Argentina)

I have also selected Mr. Haile Menkerios (Eritrea) to chair the Committee of Experts.

(Signed) Kofi A. Annan
